I, the undersigned donor (“Donor”), hereby unconditionally and irrevocably give the object(s) described below as an unrestricted donation to the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum (DHHRM). Donor understands and accepts that:

1. By execution of this Deed of Gift, Donor represents and warrants that Donor is the sole owner of title to the object(s) and has full power and authority to transfer title of the donated object(s) to DHHRM.
2. Upon execution of this Deed of Gift the donated object(s) irrevocably become the property of DHHRM, and may be displayed, stored, maintained, loaned, sold and/or disposed of as needed in DHHRM’s sole and unrestricted discretion (unless expressly stated otherwise herein below).
3. DHHRM has not promised and is in no way obligated to display the donated object(s).
4. Donor freely consents and grants to DHHRM, its assignees, licensees, and successors, the right to record his/her name, contact information, and documentary information and images relating to donated object(s). Donor also consents and grants the aforementioned parties the right to use, adapt, publish, print, broadcast, transmit, and distribute worldwide, in whole or in part, in any and all languages, in any and all media and formats now known or hereinafter devised, and the right to sublicense the publication, exhibition, broadcast, transmission, distribution, and translation rights now and in the future, with the exception of private contact information.
5. Donor also consents and grants permission to use his/her name and biography, and information and images relating to donated object(s), including but not limited to use on DHHRM’s internet web site, exhibitions, promotional brochures, broadcasts, and transmissions. He/She expressly releases DHHRM from any and all claims arising out of the use of his/her name and biography, and documentary information and images relating to donated artifacts including but not limited to claims of invasion of privacy, defamation, and infringement of the right of publicity.
6. Donations may be tax deductible. However, DHHRM will provide no appraisal of the gift, and Donor is encouraged to seek the advice of counsel or a qualified accountant before claiming tax deductions.
