

Retail Sales Lead (Part-time) - Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum

300 N Houston St, Dallas, TX 75202, USA Req #991

Friday, August 16, 2019

Do you have an interest in Museums and want to work for an amazing company that puts its team, partners, guests & our planet first?

The Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum is dedicated to teaching the history of the Holocaust and advancing human rights to combat prejudice, hatred and indifference.

Imagine yourself helping our guests create memorable experiences...Now imagine yourself in a fun and rewarding Sales Lead role at our newly acquired Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum gift store.

OUR STORY

Our story begins with extraordinary people. It is a group of creative, detailed and passionate folks that make up our store and store support center teams that truly love what they do – helping further our partner’s missions by creating spectacular retail experiences.

Event Network is the industry leader in experiential and lifestyle retail, proudly delivering unparalleled guest experiences at unique world-class locations in North America. Our stores are at many of the most iconic cultural and resort destinations throughout the United States and Canada, including zoos, aquariums, museums, science centers, botanical gardens, iconic, traveling exhibitions and other highly regarded cultural institutions. To see a complete list of our partnerships, please visit us at www.eventnetwork.com.

THE POSITION

Our people make us pretty great! Our friendly and enthusiastic team help create delight and surprise as they interact with guests to deliver the ultimate guest shopping experience.

As SALES LEAD (Part-time), you will:

- Provide exceptional guest service as you support the store management team in day-to-day operation
- Ensure that our guests have the best shopping experience ever
- Engage with guests and create an entertaining, fun, exciting and memorable experience

Position Preferences / Requirements:

- Prior retail keyholder, retail supervisory, cash-handling, and customer service experience required
- Strong merchandising skills a must
- Must be able to work a flexible schedule, weekends, early evenings and holidays
- Must naturally enjoy interacting with people of all ages
- Ability to proactively intercept, engage, and demonstrate product to customers in a positive, welcoming and outgoing manner, and able to effectively communicate product features
- Must be welcoming, positive, engaging and friendly towards our guests, team members, and venue staff

OUR STORES

Cultural attractions are an important part of the fabric of our communities. We are honored to have the opportunity to work in such fabulous places. In our stores, there are surprises for guests and employees to enjoy in every corner. Each of our beautifully designed stores is unique, and each provides a high-quality retail experience to complement the fun memories created throughout the guests' visits at each of our partner locations. From the store ambiance, environments and stunning visual displays, to the personalized product assortments cultivated specifically for each venue - each store tells a story. Within each are passionate and devoted team members, along with our excited guests. When guests walk into our stores, they feel welcome and encouraged to engage with their surroundings, to create additional memories that will contribute to the next chapter in their very own story. Join us and be part of our story!

BENEFITS – WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED

In addition to competitive pay, we offer health benefits and store discounts that can be used at any of our stores.

BRING YOUR TALENT TO US!

Apply today! You'll have the opportunity to join a team that takes pride in our amazing Company Culture. Share your commitment to excellence with us, and be a part of our culture of teamwork, creativity, inspiration & fun. You will enjoy an environment where you are encouraged and inspired to develop yourself professionally and personally, where you are celebrated and motivated, and where we promote wellness through healthy living to enhance your quality of life. Come see for yourself!

Apply Now by emailing Elyse Rodriguez from Event Network at elyse.rodriguez@eventnetwork.com .

Event Network is an equal opportunity employer.