Social Studies/History/Special Topics Educators

Holocaust History – Sports, Race, and Human Rights: The Nazi Olympics to Tokyo 2021

9:00 AM

Welcome

The Director of Education welcomes social studies, history, and special topics educators to the Conference and thanks our Conference sponsors. This is followed by a review of the schedule for the Conference and instructions on how to sign up for day 2 breakout sessions.

9:30 AM

Holocaust History – Break Out Session 1:

These breakout sessions introduce educators to tools and resources necessary to teach a lesson unit on the Holocaust.

Group A: Echoes and Reflections: Teaching the Holocaust, Empowering Students

Through this signature professional development program, educators enhance their knowledge and capacity to teach about the Holocaust, including the history of antisemitism, the establishment of the ghettos, the “Final Solution,” and how this historical event continues to influence the world today.

Group B: Nazi Olympics and Race Theory

The 1936 Olympics were held in Berlin, Germany. With the world eyes upon Nazi Germany the question of race and sports came a central point of discussion. Learn from our Museum Educators about Nazi racial theory, join our Museum Archivist to view exclusive photos from the 1936 Olympics, and receive the resources to discuss Nazi racial theory in your classroom.

Holocaust History - Antisemitism and Hate Speech: From the Holocaust to Today

9:00 AM Welcome
The Director of Education welcomes all participants and thanks our Conference sponsors. This is followed by a review of the schedule for the Conference and instructions on how to sign up for Day 2 breakout sessions.

9:30 AM Holocaust History – Break Out Session 1:

Group A: Echoes and Reflections: Analyzing Propaganda and Teaching Media Literacy: The Holocaust as a Case Study

Explore the events of the Holocaust through the lens of media, by examining propaganda deployed by the Nazis to discriminate against Jews and other minorities. Educators gain the tools to facilitate classroom discussions on the role and impact of Nazi propaganda during the Holocaust and support their students to critically analyze media in today's world.

Group B: DHHRM – History of Antisemitism and Nazi Propaganda

The Museum's Education Team will explore the history of the Holocaust through a literary lens by exploring Nazi propaganda. How did words and symbols impact speech and propaganda during the Holocaust? Why is it important to teach this history? And what resources are available?

12:00 PM Lunch Break

- 12:30 PM Lunch Keynote Speaker: Today’s Antisemitism & Its Relationship to Holocaust Denial and Distortion by Dr. Robert Williams
 Dr. Robert Williams is Deputy Director for International Affairs at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and a U.S. delegate to the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance, where he chairs the Committee on Antisemitism and Holocaust Denial. He advises several international bodies on issues related to Holocaust remembrance and antisemitism, and he is currently overseeing a major international initiative that assesses those laws and regulations that seek to curb denial of genocide and the Holocaust. Outside of work, he is co-editing a volume for Routledge on the history of antisemitism.
