

INSPIRE UPSTANDERS: BUILDING SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING

DALLAS HOLOCAUST AND HUMAN RIGHTS MUSEUM
ANN AND NATE LEVINE FAMILY CENTER FOR EDUCATION

Join us at the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum in our annual professional development for K-5 educators, counselors, and librarians. Receive the social emotional learning tools, resources, and confidence to teach your students the importance of empathy, acceptance, and kindness through historical Upstanders.

Participants will have the unique opportunity to hear from Maria Dismondy, former teacher and author of Chocolate Milk, Por Favor and The Juice Box Bully: Empowering Kids to Stand Up for Others. Dismondy uses children's literature to inspire and educate children to be good people.
