

DALLAS HOLOCAUST AND HUMAN RIGHTS MUSEUM
ANN AND NATE LEVINE FAMILY CENTER FOR EDUCATION

Candy Brown Holocaust and Human Rights Teaching Fellowship

Apply now:

https://dhhrm.formstack.com/forms/2024_teaching_fellowship

In person at the Museum

$60 for Series and Teaching Fellowship Days

Our 2024 Teaching Fellowship Dates

Holocaust Remembrance Week
Sunday, January 28, 2024

Teaching Genocide Studies
Saturday, April 20, 2024

Teaching Holocaust Literature
Tuesday, June 11, 2024

Teaching Ethnic Studies
Tuesday, July 23, 2024

Teaching Human Rights
Saturday, October 19, 2024

Teaching Fellowship Days 2025 Date TBD

Join us for a 2-day immersive teaching fellowship training. Participants will learn how to facilitate our Education Programs and become ambassadors for the Museum in their schools. Completion of this training is required to become a Museum Teaching Fellow.

About Teaching Fellowship

The new Teaching Fellowship provides North Texas educators an opportunity to fully connect with the Museum and its mission. Participants will attend the full Educator Series and join a select group of educators for an exclusive 2-day immersive Teaching Fellowship training. Upon completion of the Fellowship, participants will be certified to facilitate our Education Programs and join our Teaching Fellows Advisory Committee.

Teaching Fellowship includes:

- All resources, lessons, and items provided for the Education Series
- Access to Inspire Upstander Education Database
- Museum lanyard and t-shirt
- Museum membership
- Teaching Fellowship certificate
- Museum support in creating your own lesson/resource to be uploaded to the Upstander Education Database
- Education Program Facilitator completion and certification

Questions? email education@dhhrm.org