

INSPIRE UPSTANDERS

Professional Development for Elementary School Educators

Thursday, June 6, 2024 | 9:30 am - 3:30 pm

Join us at the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum for our annual professional development for K-5th grade educators, counselors, and librarians. Receive the Upstander skills tools, resources, and confidence to teach your students the importance of culture and belonging, embracing differences, and empathy through historical Upstanders.

Participants will receive:

- 6 hours of CPE credit
- Resources and tools to teach Upstander skills
- Resources and lessons to use during Holocaust Remembrance Week
- Keynote speaker book, The Cat Who Lived With Anne Frank
- Continental breakfast and lunch
- Free parking

Keynote Speakers: Steve Jay Rubin and David Lee Miller

Award-winning writers, producers, and directors, Steve Rubin and David Miller, will join us for live reading and discussion of their illustrated book, The Cat Who Lived With Anne Frank. Told from the point of view of a cat named Mouschi, this book shares the story of Anne Frank, life in the Amsterdam "Secret Annex" and is based on actual events.
