

INSPIRE: UPSTANDERS IN HISTORY

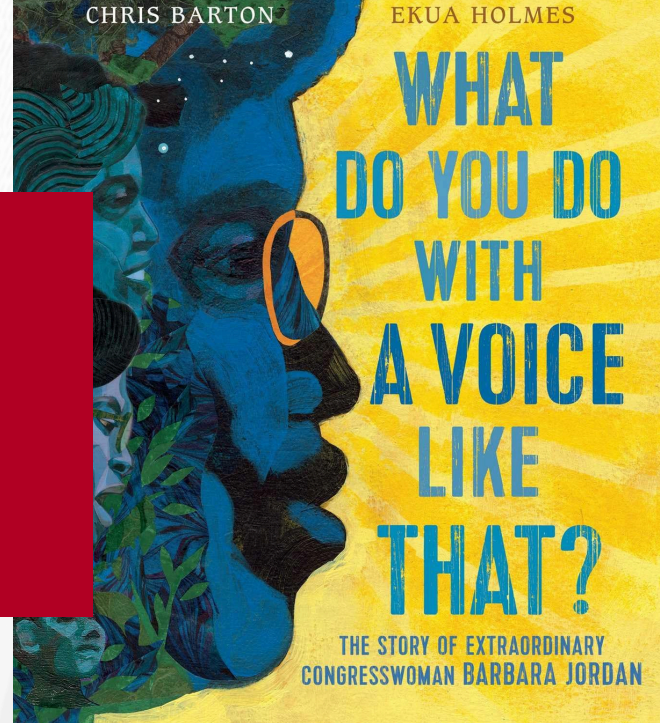

Professional Development for Elementary Education Professionals

OVERVIEW

Bring history to life this summer. Discover TEKS-aligned, cross-curricular sessions on WWII, the Kindertransport, perseverance, and positive TEA character traits. Perfect for elementary teachers, counselors, and librarians. Gain ready-to-use insight to engage young learners.

FEATURED SPEAKERS & ACTIVITIES

- Chris Barton - Award-winning author of “What Do You Do With a Voice Like That? The Story of Extraordinary Congresswoman Barbara Jordan”. Learn how Chris uses storytelling to inspire young readers with tales of courage and leadership.
- Survivor Speaker - Listen to a Holocaust Survivor’s unforgettable story of defining moments, and how they survived during the Holocaust.
- Breakout Sessions - Hands-on learning opportunities available for elementary professionals. Sessions are aligned towards Kindergarten through 3rd grade, as well as 4th grade through 6th grade.

MONDAY, JUNE 9TH
9 AM TO 4 PM

- Free parking
- Continental Breakfast
- Catered Lunch
- DHHRM take home goodie bags

REGISTRATION

Use our QR code to sign up or on our website at <https://www.dhhrm.org/educators/educator-professional-development/>

Questions: education@dhhrm.org