

Candy Brown Holocaust and Human Rights Educator Series

Register now:

https://dhhrm.formstack.com/forms/2026\_hhrec\_series

At Museum or virtual

$25 per session or $40 for both sessions

Scholarships available for Title I schools

Our 2026 Sessions

Holocaust Studies and Literature

June 8-9, 2026

Discover effective resources and strategies for teaching Holocaust history and literature. Attend keynote presentations and breakout sessions designed to highlight valuable materials and meaningful curricular connections.

Featured keynote speakers:

- Alan Gratz, best-selling author
- Rebecca Erbelding, PhD., Historian for the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

American-Texas Upstanders in Social Studies and Literature

July 21-22, 2026

Discover ways to connect U.S. and Texas history with literature and civic learning. Hear from an acclaimed author and explore practical strategies in breakout sessions on building Upstander skills, making historical themes come alive in ELAR and social studies classrooms, and inspiring students to see themselves in history.

Featured keynote speakers:

- Christopher Paul Curtis, best-selling author
- Deborah Liles, PhD., Associate Professor and W.K. Gordon Endowed Chair of Texas History

About the Series

The Candy Brown Holocaust and Human Rights Educator Series invites educators and librarians to engage with the Museum through two sessions exploring themes from its exhibitions and educational mission.

Each session comes with:

- Keynote speakers and access to exclusive events
- Classroom resource kit and Museum swag
- CPE credit
- Free parking and meals