

DALLAS HOLOCAUST AND HUMAN RIGHTS MUSEUM
ANN AND NATE LEVINE FAMILY CENTER FOR EDUCATION

INSPIRE: UPSTANDERS IN HISTORY

Professional Development for Elementary Education Professionals

OVERVIEW

Discover TEKS- and TEA-aligned, cross-curricular resources for Holocaust Remembrance Week. Explore resources for teaching civics, community, and positive character traits. Perfect for elementary teachers, counselors, and librarians. Gain ready-to-use insight to engage young learners.

FEATURED SPEAKER & OPPORTUNITIES

Hear and Meet Ruth Spiro - Bestselling Children's author of One Small Spark: A Tikkun Olam Story. Learn how Spiro uses storytelling to inspire young readers to better their world and community with tales of civility and leadership.

Breakout Sessions: Hands-on learning opportunities for elementary professionals. Sessions and workshops are TEKS- and TEA-aligned for Kindergarten through 3rd grade and for 4th through 6th grade.

Special Exhibition Tour: Engage with Museum Educators in our new special exhibition and learn how Walt Disney Studios transformed animation and artwork to contribute to the war effort during World War II.

THURSDAY, JUNE 4TH
9 AM TO 3 PM

Includes:

- 6 hours of CPE credit
- DHHRM swag bag with resources
- Breakfast & Lunch
- Parking

REGISTER NOW

https://dhhrm.formstack.com/forms/2026_es_pd_summer